Hey diary man --

I got up trashed this morning from too much partying -- but waking up to "Cat Scratch Fever" will get anyone out of his waterbed -- Got to school late and met my babe Shari who was looking fine in her new shag haircut and halter top.

School -- what a major bummer you know -- we cut out of homeroom early and went out to my car in the back lot near the football field -- The spoiler and chrome hubcaps on my Firebird never looked better -- I popped in my BTO 8-track and we hung out.

All that hanging gave us the munchies so we got some Taco Bell at the mall and drove to The Lake -- Shari was in the mood for something mellow, so I put on "Living In The Past" -- Tull is so deep, man.

Didn't get back to school 'til like 6th period -- English with Mrs. Lorel -- I barely sat down when Mr. Engel pulled me out of class and said that if I cut again, I'd be suspended -- Oh yeah, I'm real scared -- I bet Alice Cooper and the guys from Skynrd didn't finish high school either.

Spent the rest of the afternoon cutting class and hanging out with the dudes by my car in the lot -- Cranked up the tunes -- "All Right Now", "Hoochie Koo", "Hold Your Head Up" -- Had half the class hanging out with me before school was out -- even some of the nerds -- Bitchin' man --

Missed dinner at home just to piss off my folks -- Shari, me and Danny hit the movie theatre -- we'd seen everything twice already, so we caught "Smokey and the Bandit" for the third time -- Sally Field is too hot -- Drove through town in Danny's burnt orange Pinto hatchback with the windows open blaring the music -- You'd think no one in this town has heard Edgar Winter before --

Dropped Shari off and met Doobie and the boys at Howard Johnson's -- We played a few games of PONG and watched the Loaf on Don Kirshner's Rock Concert -- We sat down and ordered some burgers -- you can't believe the selection of garbage at the table juke boxes -- Captain and Tennille, Morris Albert, Anne Murray -- worse than Muzak -- The only thing we could find was "The Reaper" -- so we played it ALL NIGHT LONG....
